INTRODUCTION

This Contract applies to the following residences of the Okanagan campus of the University:

- Similkameen Place
- Valhalla, Kalamalka, Nicola, Cassiar, Purcell and Monashee Place
- Cascades and Upper Cascades

Similkameen Place, Valhalla, Kalamalka, Nicola, Cassiar, Purcell, Monashee Place, Cascades and Upper Cascades are located on the University's Okanagan campus and are owned and operated by the University.

Students who wish to reside at residence with their children are not eligible for the residences governed by this Contract.

This document is important. This is a legally binding agreement between you and the University. The basic terms of your agreement are outlined in the Residence Acceptance Confirmation page created during your on-line acceptance process. This document, the Residence Acceptance Confirmation page created during your online offer acceptance process, and the Contract Confirmation, ID and Emergency Contact Card comprise the contractual agreement between you and the University (referred to as the "Contract"). It defines the policies and regulations governing the offer of housing and the terms and conditions of accepting residence in the student residences managed by Student Housing and Hospitality Services.

Section 1.0 Administration

This section outlines administrative requirements, procedures and important deadlines. The information contained here will answer many of your questions. For other questions or clarifications, please refer to www.housing.ubc.ca, or contact the Residence Life Manager or Student Housing and Hospitality Services in the Nicola Residence (contact information is listed in Appendix I of this Contract).

Sections 2.0 Residence Life and 3.0 Residence Standards and Regulations

These two sections of this Contract define the standards of behaviour required of all residents and their visitors while present on or about all residence property (which includes but is not limited to all residence buildings operated by Student Housing and Hospitality Services including their parking lots, and surrounding grounds), and during all residence-related events, even if the events occur off campus. Living with others in a residence is different from living in a private apartment or house. What you may feel comfortable with in private may not be safe or appropriate in a shared residential environment that has a mandate to support the University's academic mission.

Section 4.0 UBC Food Services

Students who reside in Similkameen Place, Valhalla, Kalamalka, Nicola, Cassiar, or Purcell residence are required to purchase a residence meal plan, each of which are referred to in this Contract as a "Residence Meal Plan." The Food Services section of this Contract outlines the costs, options, and payment schedule for Residence Meal Plans, and rules of conduct in the dining rooms.

1.0 ADMINISTRATION

Interpretation of Terms

In this Contract:

the resident will be referred to as "you," or "your," "resident," "residents," "student" or "students";

"your accommodation," "the accommodation" and "your room" refer to the room identified on your Contract Confirmation, ID and Emergency Contact Card, as may be amended from time to time by agreement and, in particular:

If you live in a studio or one-bedroom apartment, it refers to your entire living space; and

If you live in shared accommodation, it refers to your room and the living area you share with other residents. The living area that you share with other residents, together with your room and every other resident's room is also referred to as your "unit";

an "assessment" means a bill for an amount, determined by the University, that you owe to the University on account of one or more of the following: any damage to, repair of or loss of University property (including your keys) or extraordinary service, cleaning, administrative or other costs you, your designated roommate or your guests cause to University residence facilities whether through accident, neglect or intent;

"fees" means the residence fees plus all other sums, amounts, charges and monies payable by you to the University pursuant to this Contract, including, without limitation, all Residence Meal Plan fees (see Section 4.0 and Appendix IV), if applicable, assessments, costs, interest and amounts owing as a result of any breach of this Contract;

"guest" refers to your designated roommate (if applicable) and anyone who you accompany on, invite, accept or admit to the residence property (which includes but is not limited to all residence buildings, parking lots and surrounding grounds);

“Move-In Date” means the date identified as such on your Residence Acceptance Confirmation and the Contract Confirmation, ID and Emergency Contact Card, unless otherwise agreed in writing by you and an authorized representative of UBC Student Housing and Hospitality Services;

“Move-Out Date” means the date identified as such on your Residence Acceptance Confirmation and the Contract Confirmation, ID and Emergency Contact Card, unless otherwise agreed in writing by you and an authorized representative of UBC Student Housing and Hospitality Services;

“residence fees” mean the residence fees applicable to your accommodation, as set out in Appendix IV, which for greater certainty, include utilities and Shaw Internet; and “University” and “UBC” mean The University of British Columbia. Student Housing and Hospitality Services is a department of the University and has the power and authority to act on behalf of the University in respect of this Contract. References to Student Housing and Hospitality Services refer to the University, acting through Student Housing and Hospitality Services.

In the calculation of days in this Contract (e.g. where five (5) days’ notice must be given), the first day will be excluded and the last day included.

1.01 Binding Contract

By clicking “Accept” on the Residence Acceptance Confirmation page created during your online offer acceptance process, you have accepted an offer from the University for accommodation in a student residence managed by Student Housing and Hospitality Services. By accepting this offer you have confirmed that you agree to comply with the terms and conditions outlined in this Contract.

Prior to moving into your accommodation you must:

- fill out and sign the Contract Confirmation, ID and Emergency Contact Card and provide photographs requested by Student Housing and Hospitality Services and;
- provide payment of the residence fees by the due date indicated in the Residence Acceptance Confirmation and in Section 1.12 of the Contract.

Even if you omit a step in the acceptance or move-in process, you agree that taking possession of validly offered accommodation establishes a contract between you and the University on the terms and conditions set out in this Contract.

1.02 Contract Term

The Contract term commences at 9 am on the Move-In Date and ends at 12 noon on the earliest of:

- a) the Move-Out Date; or
- b) the day following your last scheduled University examination in the final Term of your Session; or

c) the first day of University exams in your final Term or your Session if you do not have any scheduled exams that Term by which time you must have vacated and surrendered your accommodation to the University.

Failure to vacate your accommodation as required by this Contract without prior written authorization of the University constitutes a breach of this Contract and the University will pursue its remedies pursuant to Section 1.15.

Vacating your accommodation means removing all persons and personal possessions from your accommodation. If you fail to provide vacant possession when required pursuant to this Contract, then in addition to the University’s other remedies, you will pay all the University’s costs arising from such failure to vacate including, without limitation, the cost to the University incurred to clean your accommodation and to provide hotel and meals for the incoming resident who is scheduled to take possession of your accommodation.

You acknowledge that in the case of any of your or any of your guest’s personal property remaining in your accommodation after the termination of this agreement (whether by expiry, early termination or abandonment), the University will remove and dispose of your and your guest’s personal property without compensation to any person. You agree that the University will be under no obligation to store any such belongings remaining in the accommodation or to sell them or otherwise recover their value.

These sessions take place during the following dates:

SESSION	COMMENCEMENT DATE	RESIDENCE CLOSED DURING WINTER HOLIDAY BREAK	MOVE-OUT DATE
Term One Session	August, 31, 2014	N/A	December 18, 2014 (you must vacate earlier depending on your exam schedule—see language above)
Term Two Session	January 4, 2015	N/A	April 30, 2015 (you must vacate earlier depending on your exam schedule—see language above)
Winter Session	August 31, 2014	Noon December 18, 2014 through noon January 4, 2015 See Section 1.03 for Information	April 30, 2015 (you must vacate earlier depending on your exam schedule—see language above)

As set out on your Contract Confirmation, ID and Emergency Contact Card, your accommodation occurs within one of the following sessions (each, a “Session”):

- Term One Session only; or
- Term Two Session only; or
- Winter Session (which is equivalent to Term One and Term Two)

If after you to accept this Contract for the Winter Session you are permitted pursuant to Section 1.08 to change your Session to a Term One Session, or a Term Two Session, then, you are required to vacate and surrender your accommodation to the University to the revised Session in accordance with this section 1.02.

1.03 Residence Closure — Winter Holiday Break

If you reside in Similkameen Place, Valhalla, Kalamalka, Nicola, Cassiar, Purcell, Monashee Place, Cascades or Upper Cascades and have accepted accommodation for the Winter Session, you must vacate your accommodation during the winter holiday break unless written permission is received from the Residence Life Manager.

The holiday break closure commences at 12 noon on December 18, 2014 and ends at 12 noon on January 4, 2015. During this period you are not permitted to access or reside in your accommodation, nor are you permitted in any of the Similkameen Place, Monashee Place, Valhalla, Kalamalka, Nicola, Cassiar, Purcell, Cascades or Upper Cascades residence buildings. You are permitted to leave your possessions at your accommodation. If you fail to vacate your accommodation during this period then you are in breach of this Contract and the University will pursue its remedies pursuant to Section 1.15.

1.04 Designated Roommate

If you wish to reside in residence with your children you are not eligible for the residences governed by this Contract. You are not permitted to have any other person reside in your accommodation except as follows. If your accommodation is a studio or one-bedroom unit you may invite a maximum of one additional person to be your designated roommate provided that person meets the minimum age requirements for your residence. Your designated roommate is not entitled to reside in the accommodation unless you reside there at the same time. Your designated roommate must be approved in advance by Student Housing and Hospitality Services and is not entitled to move into your accommodation prior to receiving such approval.

You acknowledge that the person indicated in the Additional Occupant/Designated Roommate section of the Contract Confirmation, ID and Emergency Contact card is the person you wish to have approved as your designated roommate by Student Housing and Hospitality Services.

You are completely responsible for your designated roommate’s compliance with all conditions of this Contract. The behaviour of your designated roommate could result in you receiving standards points or any other sanction, or may result in a breach of this Contract leading to you and your designated roommate being evicted. This is so whether or not you participated in, condoned, or were aware of your designated roommate’s behaviour. You agree that no other persons shall reside in your accommodation without the prior written consent of the University. You agree to advise the University in writing within ten days of a change in designated roommate or of your designated roommate ceasing to reside in the accommodation. You acknowledge and agree that this Contract is with you alone and there is no contract between the University and the designated roommate. When you vacate the accommodation your designated roommate must vacate at the same time. Student Housing and Hospitality Services may at any time, in its absolute discretion, require that your designated roommate cease to occupy your accommodation and your designated roommate's failure to comply with an order to vacate your accommodation is a breach of this Contract, enabling Student Housing and Hospitality Services to pursue remedies against you pursuant to Section 1.15.

1.05 Mandatory Meal Plan

If you reside in Similkameen Place, Valhalla, Kalamalka, Nicola, Cassiar, or Purcell purchasing one of the Residence Meal Plans described in Section 4 and Appendix IV of this Contract is mandatory. The purchase of a Residence Meal Plan is part of your Residence Acceptance Confirmation.

1.06 Shaw Internet Agreement

In Similkameen Place, Valhalla, Kalamalka, Nicola, Cassiar, Purcell, Monashee Place, Cascades and Upper Cascades, the University will provide computing network access to your accommodation through an arrangement with Shaw Internet Service. If you use the Shaw Internet service, you agree to abide by the conditions outlined in the Shaw Terms of Use Agreement and the Shaw Acceptable Use Policy. You also agree to abide by the University's Acceptable Use and Security of UBC Electronic Information and Systems policy and guidelines as amended from time to time.

1.07 Type of Contract

You agree that this Contract creates a licensee/ licensor relationship.

As is expressly stated in the Residential Tenancy Act of British Columbia, the Residential Tenancy Act of British Columbia does not apply to this Contract and to your occupation of the accommodation.

1.08 Eligibility

1) Age Criteria

Unless you are otherwise authorized in writing by Student Housing and Hospitality Services, you must be 19 years of age by December 31, 2014 to reside in a studio unit or a one-bedroom apartment in Monashee Place.

2) Term One Session or Term Two Session Criteria

Residents are generally required to contract for accommodation for the full Winter Session. You are not permitted to contract for the Term One Session or Term Two Session unless you can substantiate to the satisfaction of Student Housing and Hospitality Services that you meet the following criteria:

- a) If you apply for the Term Two Session, your academic studies at the University will commence or resume at the beginning of Term Two; or
- b) If you apply for the Term One Session, you will not be at the University for the Term Two Session due to either: graduation at the end of Term One, or a University-related academic pursuit that requires your absence from campus. Examples include, but are not limited to, absences due to co-operative education placements or an exchange to another university, or

- c) In the opinion of the Director, Student Housing and Hospitality Services, Okanagan, there are compelling reasons to allow you to reside for only the Term One Session or Term Two Session.

3) Academic Criteria

To remain eligible to reside in student housing you must:

- i) if your Contract Session is the Term One Session or Term Two Session:
 - a) be and remain registered in at least nine (9) credits of undergraduate course work during the applicable Session; or
 - b) be and remain registered in a full-time graduate program in the College of Graduate Studies; or
 - c) have been granted permission in writing from the Director, Student Housing and Hospitality Services, Okanagan.
- ii) if your Contract Session is the Winter Session:
 - a) be and remain registered in at least 18 credits of undergraduate course work (consisting of at least nine (9) credits per term) during the 2014–2015 Winter Session; or
 - b) be and remain registered in a full-time graduate program in the College of Graduate Studies; or
 - c) have been granted permission in writing from the Director, Student Housing and Hospitality Services, Okanagan.

1.09 Assignment Policy

The University will not discriminate in room or unit assignments on the basis of race, colour, religion, place of origin, ancestry or sexual orientation.

The University will attempt to honour, but does not guarantee, your request for a particular type of accommodation. Failure to provide your preferred accommodation will not invalidate this Contract.

The University reserves the right, without notice, to assign/change roommates, to change accommodation assignments and/or to consolidate vacancies by requiring you or other residents to move from one accommodation to another. This may include requiring you to move to a different residence area, floor, building or different type of room or unit. If this happens to you, you are required to pay the residence fees stipulated for the new accommodation and Meal Plan if applicable.

If you or your guests have mobility or agility disabilities, you are welcome to request an assignment to a unit located above the ground floor. Nevertheless, please note that elevators do break down occasionally, and may be out of order for an extended period. Inconveniences may occur for those who are unable to navigate stairs. The University will take action to repair any malfunctioning equipment promptly; however, it is not responsible for service disruptions which limit access to your accommodation.

1.10 Compliance with Laws etc.

You agree to the terms of this Contract and to abide by all federal, provincial and local government laws, regulations and bylaws, University rules, regulations, policies and procedures, including but not limited to those issued from time to time, by Student Housing and Hospitality Services. To the extent that there is any discrepancy between matters dealt with both in this Contract and any other publication of Student Housing and Hospitality Services, the provisions of this Contract shall prevail.

1.11 Contract Changes

Changes may not be made to the terms of this Contract without the written permission of the Managing Director, Student Housing and Hospitality Services, or his or her designate. During the term of the Contract, the University may unilaterally change or delete any provision of this Contract or add provisions to this Contract (each, a change) by sending you an email notification to the email address you have provided to the University through the University's Student Service Centre or by written notification delivered to your accommodation. Changes will be effective and binding upon you on the date set out in the notification. If no date is set out in the notification, the contract changes will be effective one week from the date the notification was sent. Please note, however, that changes may be implemented immediately when, in the opinion of the Managing Director, Student Housing and Hospitality Services, the health or safety of any person may be adversely affected by a delay.

1.12 Rates and Payment

You agree to pay the residence fees which are outlined in Appendix IV and Residence Meal Plan fees (if applicable) which are outlined in Appendix IV. You may either pay the entire amount due or pay the residence fees and Residence Meal Plan fees in instalments, in the amounts and on the dates outlined in Appendix IV. If you choose to, or are required to, change your accommodation you will be required to pay the fees stipulated for the new accommodation, including the Residence Meal Plan, if applicable.

- Failure to pay the first instalment of residence fees by or on the date it is due will lead to forfeiture of your accommodation assignment.

Please note that the following terms apply to all fees and payments required by Student Housing and Hospitality Services (i.e. residence fees, Residence Meal Plan, activities/programs, assessments, et cetera):

- Post-dated cheques will not be accepted.
- A $30 service charge will be levied on all cheques returned by your bank for any reason.
- You will pay all fees that may be imposed the University from time to time in respect of failed electronic financial transactions, including, without limitation, electronic funds transfers and Interac transactions where, after initial processing, the transaction is cancelled or voided due to insufficient funds.
- Late payments may not be accepted. If a late payment is accepted, it will be subject to a late payment fee of $25.

1.13 Cancellation of the Residence Contract Prior to Move-In Date

You may cancel this Contract before the Move-In Date by paying the cancellation fees and following the procedures outlined in Appendix III that are applicable to your Contact Session.

Contract

1.14 Termination of the Residence Contract On or After Move-In Date by the Resident

a) You may only terminate this Contract on or after the Move-In Date if you:

- i) complete the check-out procedures at the Housing Office; and
- ii) pay the Termination Fee applicable to your Contract type.

For greater clarity, the University cannot re-let your accommodation until you have completed your check-out procedures at the Housing Office. If you wish to terminate this Contract but do not complete the check-out procedures, this Contract will continue in force and you will be charged residence fees and Residence Meal Plan fees (if applicable) until the earlier of:

- A) the date you return all assigned keys to the Housing Office and you sign the check-out form;
- B) the date Student Housing and Hospitality Services deems you to have abandoned your accommodation (which may take weeks or months); and
- C) your Move-Out Date.

See Section 4.06 of this Contract for information about withdrawing from a meal plan and refunds.

For greater certainty, this section applies regardless of whether you have actually moved into your accommodation (i.e. even if you do not check-in).

b) If you have contracted for the Winter Session the applicable Termination Fee is the lesser of:

- i) 25% of the total residence fees applicable to your Session and your accommodation type as outlined in Appendix IV; or,

ii) the remainder of the residence fees applicable to your Session and your accommodation type owed from the date you complete the check-out procedures at the Housing Office until the Move-Out Date.

c) There are three circumstances in which the University will exempt you from paying the Termination Fee:

- i) you are:
 - A) an undergraduate student or graduate student in the UBC College of Graduate Studies; and
 - B) a resident for the Winter Session and you choose to:
 - A) graduate at the end of Term One; or
 - B) move out of residence in order to participate in one of the following activities:
 - a UBC co-op work placement in Term Two,
 - a UBC student exchange program in Term Two, or
 - a teaching practicum for the UBC Faculty of Education in Term Two.

In these circumstances, to be exempted from paying the Termination Fee, you must do both of the following:

- complete and submit an online contract cancellation request and submit documentation satisfactory to Student Housing and Hospitality Services that confirms your eligibility to graduate, or otherwise your participation in the co-op work placement, exchange program enrolment, or education practicum, by October 31, 2014; and
- vacate your room by the end of Term One (December 18, 2014) or such other date approved in writing by Student Housing and Hospitality Services.

For greater certainty, failure to give notice by October 31, 2014, even if you do vacate by December 18, 2014, will result in the resident being charged the Termination Fee.

ii) you are:

- a) a graduate student enrolled in the UBC College of Graduate Studies, and
 - b) a resident for the Winter Session
- and you anticipate that your Program Completion and Closure Date (defined below) will occur during the Term.

In these circumstances, to be exempted from paying the Termination Fee, you must do both of the following:

- complete and submit an online contract cancellation request at least two months prior to the last day of the month in which your anticipated Program Completion and Closure Date falls, that identifies a move-out date that is on the last day of the month in which your anticipated Program Completion and Closure Date falls;
- submit documentation satisfactory to Student Housing and Hospitality Services that confirms your anticipated Program Completion and Closure Date; and
- vacate your room by the move-out date indicated on your contract cancellation request.

For example, if you expect that your Program Completion and Closure Date will be some time in November, you must submit a contract cancellation request and the required confirmations by September 30, and depart on November 30.

In this section, “Program Completion and Closure Date” means the date the University considers your academic program to be concluded. Note, this is different from the date of your convocation.

Acknowledging that your Program Completion and Closure Date may be unpredictable, Student Housing and Hospitality Services encourages you to give yourself sufficient time to fulfil your program completion and closure requirements. If you’ve submitted a contract cancellation request and you then come to expect that your Program Completion and Closure Date will not occur until after the move-out date indicated on your contract cancellation request, please notify Student Housing and Hospitality Services immediately. Student Housing and Hospitality Services will make all reasonable efforts to allow you to remain in your accommodation (no later than the end of the Winter Session), and if that is not possible, Student Housing and Hospitality Services will offer you alternative accommodation, if available, on a short-term basis. The alternative accommodation may not be in your current residence, and, in any case, the terms and conditions, including fees, will be those applicable to that alternative accommodation.

For additional information about the documentation that Student Housing and Hospitality Services will find satisfactory to demonstrate your eligibility to graduate, complete your graduate program, or otherwise participate in a UBC co-op work placement, exchange program enrolment, or Faculty of Education practicum please contact the Housing Office.

1.15 Termination of the Residence Contract by the University

If at any time:

- i) you fail to pay when due any of the fees stipulated in this Contract;
- ii) you fail to pay when due any assessments assessed pursuant to the terms of this Contract;
- iii) the University becomes aware that the offer of accommodation made to you was based upon incorrect information or a mistake as to your eligibility for residency in your accommodation;
- iv) you no longer meet the eligibility requirements for residency in your accommodation;
- v) the Director of Student Housing and Hospitality Services, Okanagan has revoked the approval previously given pursuant to Section 1.08(2)(c) or Section 1.08(3)(i)(c) or Section 1.08(3)(ii)(c) for you to reside in residence;
- vi) you have failed to pay, when due, monies owed to Student Housing and Hospitality Services with respect to matters other than this Contract;
- vii) you have violated University rules, policies or procedures and/or the residence standards and regulations as stated in Sections 2 and 3 of this Contract as they may be amended from time to time;
- viii) you fail to provide the requested recent photographs and other information required to complete the Contract Confirmation, ID and Emergency Contact Card; or
- ix) you breach any provision of this Contract;

then, in addition to any other available remedies, the University may, without notice, terminate this Contract, re-enter and take possession of your accommodation, remove you and all other persons and property and use such force and assistance as the University deems necessary to take possession of the accommodation.

In the event of termination of this Contract and eviction, you will remain indebted for any fees, including assessments, accrued pursuant to the terms of the Contract and any that may arise:

- from your occupation, use of or departure from your accommodation or any residence building.
- otherwise from your failure to comply with the terms of this Contract, including, for greater certainty, fees for the balance of the Contract term remaining after your eviction. In most cases, this amount will exceed the Termination Fee payable in accordance with Section 1.14.

1.16 Overholding

If you remain in occupation of your accommodation after the Move-Out Date or your eviction date, no new right of occupation is thereby created and the University may, without notice, re-enter and take possession of your accommodation, remove you and all other persons and property and use such force and assistance as the Landlord deems necessary to retake possession of your accommodation. In this situation, purported residence fee payment(s) processed through the University’s online payment process shall not be effective to create any new or continued right of occupation unless such right of occupation and receipt of payment are expressly agreed to in writing acknowledged by the Managing Director, Student Housing and Hospitality Services. If the Managing Director, Student Housing and Hospitality Services has provided such written agreement then any right of occupation that is thereby created shall be for the period contained in such approval, at the residence fees previously payable for your accommodation and subject to the terms of this Contract, as applicable for the occupancy period.

In no case shall any acceptance of residence fees of your accommodation after the expiry of the term of this Contract result in any right of occupancy greater than a right to occupy your accommodation from month to month (meaning, for greater certainty, terminable by you or the University at any time on one month's notice), at the residence fees previously payable for your accommodation, and not from year to year and shall be subject to the terms of this Contract so far as the same are applicable to a right to occupy from month to month.

1.17 Vacating Your Accommodation

Vacating your accommodation means removing all persons and personal possessions from your accommodation. If you fail to provide vacant possession when required pursuant to this Contract, then in addition to the University's other remedies, you will pay all the University's costs arising from such failure to vacate including, without limitation, the cost to the University incurred to clean your accommodation and to provide hotel and meals for the incoming resident who is scheduled to take possession of your accommodation.

You acknowledge that in the case of any of your or any of your guest's personal property remaining in your accommodation after the termination of this Contract (whether by expiry, early termination or abandonment), the University will remove and dispose of your and your guest's personal property without compensation to any person. You agree that the University will be under no obligation to store any such belongings remaining in the accommodation or to sell them or otherwise recover their value.

1.18 Abandoned Accommodation and Personal Property

Your accommodation and your and any of your guests' personal property may be deemed by the University to be abandoned when:

- a) a substantial amount of your personal property is removed and your residence fees are unpaid after the date that they are due; or
- b) your residence fees remain unpaid after the date they are due and the University has not received a response from you for a period of 14 days after sending you a notice.

If the University deems your accommodation to be abandoned, the University may re-enter your accommodation and, in addition to any additional rights the University may have, the University may re-rent your accommodation. In that event, re-entry may be made without notice to you and without liability to you for any damage or prosecution.

You acknowledge that in the case of abandonment, the University will remove and dispose of your and any of your guests' personal property without compensation to you or your guests (as the case may be). You agree that the University will be under no obligation to store such belongings or to sell them or otherwise recover their value.

1.19 Assignment and Unauthorized Occupancy

You alone, and, if expressly permitted pursuant to this Contract, your designated roommate, may occupy your accommodation. This Contract and your accommodation cannot be assigned, "sublet," lent or otherwise shared with another person without the prior written authorization of the University, such authorization exercised by the University in its absolute discretion and may be withheld or withdrawn for any reason. This is so even when money or other consideration is not exchanged. Unauthorized assignment, "subletting," sharing or lending is a breach of this Contract and will result in the eviction of the other person(s) occupying or sharing your accommodation and may result in the University evicting you.

1.20 University's Performance

The University, inasmuch as it is within the University's control, will provide the accommodation pursuant to the terms and conditions stated in this Contract.

To the extent that the University is unable to fulfil, or is delayed or restricted in fulfilling, its obligations under this Contract by any cause beyond its control, the University shall be relieved from the fulfilment of its obligations during that period and you shall not be entitled to any reduction in fees or compensation as a result thereof. Without restricting the generality of the foregoing, the University shall not be responsible for:

- failing to meet its obligations under this Contract due to a strike by its employees, a lock-out of employees by the University, or any other form of job action or labour unrest, acts of God including fires, floods, storms, earthquakes; intervention by civilian or military authorities, acts of war, acts of terrorism, public, health emergencies, utility failures, whether localized, national or international, or new or amended federal, provincial or local government laws, regulations, bylaws or policies, or
- the failure to provide any utility to the accommodation whether such utility is provided by the University, or by third party providers.

1.21 Liability

The University is not responsible for property belonging to you or any of your guests which is lost, stolen or damaged in any way, regardless of cause, whether or not this may occur on the residence property, including storage facilities and your accommodation. The University is not responsible for any injury, death, damage or loss whatsoever caused to you or your guests while in or about the residences or the University campus or while engaged in activities organized or sponsored by the University. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the University shall not be responsible for injury, damage or loss to you or your guests due to:

- the use of residence facilities and equipment, including but not limited to exercise equipment, sports equipment, barbecues, tennis courts and basketball courts;

- taking part in socials, dances, plays or other organized or sponsored activities; and
- taking part in organized or sponsored off-campus activities including ski trips and tours.

You agree you will not do, or permit to be done, any act or thing which may render void or voidable any insurance policy of the University. You agree to indemnify and save harmless the University from and against any expense, loss or damage suffered by the University by reason of your breach or non-performance of any term of this Contract.

1.22 Insurance

The University carries insurance for its own benefit (see Risk Management Services <http://riskmanagement.ubc.ca/insurance> for more information). The University does not provide you with general insurance, liability insurance or property insurance for your personal belongings. It is recommended that you arrange for your person and all your personal effects, in residence rooms, units, apartments, storage rooms, and all other residence property including in all residence buildings be covered by private insurance. The University strongly advises you to obtain a residential insurance policy that covers:

- a) loss of personal property; and
- b) liability for personal injury and property damage.

Insurance may be available as an extension of your family's home insurance policy, or you can obtain your own insurance package. See Appendix II for more information.

1.23 Damages and Costs

You agree to pay for damages, lost property or extraordinary service or administrative costs you, your designated roommate or your guests cause to University residence facilities whether through accident, neglect or intent. See Appendix II for more information about assessments.

All residents of a floor or unit may be assessed for cleaning, damages, lost property or extraordinary service costs where the person(s) responsible cannot be ascertained by the University but where the damages, lost property, or excessive mess were reasonably believed by Student Housing and Hospitality Services to be caused by one or more residents of a floor or unit. Where charges and costs have not been paid by the specified date, a late fee will be added.

Failure to pay assessments may result in the relocation of you or other resident(s) to another floor or unit, denial of future residence assignment or eviction from residence. To appeal an assessment you must follow the written appeal procedure outlined on the assessment form. Appeals will only be considered if you are not in arrears for any other fees, charges or amounts owed to Student Housing and Hospitality Services.

1.24 Denial of Other University Services

In addition to any other remedies available to it pursuant to this Contract or at law, the University may, pursuant to University Policy 67, suspend your student privileges and deny you student services if any fees, assessments, or other monetary amounts owing pursuant to this Contract remain unpaid by you either during the term of this Contract or after its termination or conclusion for any reason.

1.25 Room Entry

Authorized personnel of the University may enter your accommodation, without prior notice, for any of the following reasons: to ensure health, safety or general community welfare, to make deliveries, to make repairs to your accommodation and the equipment servicing it, to inspect the condition of your accommodation, to provide any housekeeping services, and to investigate compliance with and possible breaches of this Contract.

1.26 Arrivals

You may check into residence at the Housing Office after 9 am on the Move-In Date. Residents may not arrive earlier than the Move-In Date unless they qualify under Section 1.27 below.

1.27 Early Arrivals

Written permission to arrive early may be permitted in certain limited circumstances. Please contact Student Housing and Hospitality Services for more information.

1.28 Late Arrivals

If you plan to arrive more than five days after your Move-In Date, you must notify Student Housing and Hospitality Services in writing. If you do not move into your accommodation within five days of your Move-in Date, this Contract will be cancelled and your accommodation will be reassigned without further notice.

1.29 Delivery of Personal Property

The University will not accept personal property delivered to the residence prior to your arrival. You are required to make arrangements to have all personal property held in storage off campus until you have checked into residence. The University does not accept any responsibility for personal property delivered to the Housing Office or left in residence areas.

1.30 Non-residence furniture and appliances

Residence rooms and shared units are furnished. Additional furniture and appliances are not permitted to be placed in your room or common areas of your accommodation without prior written authorization from the Residence Life Manager (see Appendix I for Residence Life Manager contact information). This includes space heaters, microwaves and refrigerators.

While small pieces of furniture (i.e.: bookshelf, end table) will typically be authorized, pieces larger than 3' x 3' x 3' (e.g.: sofa, bureau, et cetera) are prohibited. Further, in Similkameen Place, Valhalla, Kalamalka, Nicola, Cassiar and Purcell residences, only furniture supplied by Student Housing and Hospitality is permitted in common areas. Costs associated with removing additional furniture or appliances will be assessed as outlined in Section 1.23 Damages and Costs.

1.31 Housekeeping

Following check-in you have seven (7) days to complete a "room inventory and condition" report available via the Online Service Centre at <https://secure.housing.ubc.ca>. This will create a report regarding the condition of your accommodation (i.e. any existing damage), and the condition of and/or any missing inventory items. After your departure the room and common areas and their contents will be inspected. Any missing items, damage not documented on the room inventory and condition report, or required cleaning will be assessed to you and/or deducted from any residence fee refund. Submission of this online room inventory and condition report is an integral part of any assessment appeal consideration. If there is a question regarding responsibility for damages to the room, unit or furnishings, this report will be used in determining responsibility for the damages. Failure to complete the report may result in you being assessed for all damages and missing items.

Common areas in units will be inspected from time to time during the year to ensure they are kept clean and safe. If you fail to keep common areas/units clean it will result in assessment and/or the possible relocation of you or other residents, and/or denial of a future residence offer.

1.32 Repairs and Alterations

All repairs and alterations to accommodations will be carried out by the University staff. Residents are prohibited from repairing or altering the exterior or interior of their room or unit and should report any required repairs using the Online Service Centre at <https://secure.housing.ubc.ca>. Without limiting the forgoing, residents are prohibited from painting or wallpapering their room or unit, or attaching mailboxes, planters, satellite dishes, signage of any kind or any other thing to the exterior of their room or unit or any residence building(s).

1.33 Pest Treatment

You shall not allow conditions to exist that, in the opinion of Student Housing and Hospitality Services, may encourage the infestation or propagation of insects, rodents or other vermin. You are required to report the presence or suspected presence of pests (including bedbugs) in your accommodation to Student Housing and Hospitality Services. In accordance with Section 1.25, personnel authorized by the University may enter your accommodation, without notice and, if necessary, without your presence, to inspect for pests. Should, in the opinion of Student Housing and Hospitality Services, treatment be required, you will be required to comply with the prescribed treatment methods and protocol which may include preparing your accommodation for scheduled treatment.. This may include relocation (note Section 1.09), cleaning and/or removal and disposal of furnishings or personal possessions. In such an event you shall not be reimbursed by the University for any disruption, relocation, loss or loss of use of personal possessions or furnishings.

Should you fail to prepare your accommodation for treatment in accordance with instructions from the University, or otherwise fail to follow the University's directions regarding pest treatment, you may be held responsible for the cost of rescheduled or additional treatments of your accommodation, or of other portions of the residence property

1.34 Construction and Maintenance

There are on-going maintenance, renovation and construction projects taking place in and around the residences. The work typically takes place during regular business hours, but may begin earlier or extend into evenings or weekends. On-going construction or renovation projects will continue through midterm and final exam periods. The University will take measures to ensure that prudent construction practices are followed, but there may be noise, dust, and temporary interruption of some services.

Residents may be required to temporarily or permanently relocate to facilitate construction or renovation to their residence area. There will be no compensation or reduction to your residence fees due to disruption and/or relocation.

1.35 Transfers

There are two types of transfers:

- a) The first, called a "room switch," is between two residents who mutually agree to exchange or "switch" accommodation. The fee for this transfer is $10 per person. Please enquire at the Housing Office regarding this procedure.
- b) The second type of transfer constitutes a move to new accommodation when it becomes available. The fee for this transfer is $50.

If you wish to change accommodation after moving into residence, you may request a transfer to other accommodation. Transfers are not guaranteed and must be approved by Student Housing and Hospitality Services. Unauthorized transfers or switches may result in you being required to move back to your assigned accommodation and/or standards action. You are required to pay for the difference in residence fees when you move to more expensive accommodation. Refunds due to a transfer to less expensive accommodation will be credited to your account. You agree to be bound by the terms of the contract governing your new accommodation.

Eligibility for Transfers: You must meet the minimum age and academic program requirements outlined in Section 1.08 to be eligible for a switch to transfer to specific residence areas.

Transfer Application Dates: The first date that you may apply for a transfer or a room switch is the later of the date you move into residence and September 8, 2014. An online transfer/switch application is available on the Student Housing and Hospitality Online Service Centre at <https://secure.housing.ubc.ca>.

Transfer Completion Dates: Transfers must be completed within 72 hours of notification of approval from Student Housing and Hospitality, or additional fees may be assessed.

1.36 Transportation and Parking

- a) Motorized Vehicles

Parking of motorized vehicles (which includes, but is not limited to, cars, motorcycles, mopeds, and scooters) on the University campus is strictly regulated. Residence parking spaces are limited and a parking assignment is not guaranteed.

The terms and conditions of parking and the options available are outlined in the parking application. Applicants assigned a parking space must provide certification that they are the insured principal driver of the vehicle when claiming their parking space at check-in.

The rules imposed by Student Housing and Hospitality Services (pursuant to this Contract or otherwise) regarding parking services are in addition to, and not in substitution of, the University parking regulations enforced by UBC Okanagan Parking Services. All vehicles parked on residence property are subject to the University parking regulations, as amended from time to time. Residents or visitors in violation of the University parking regulations may have their vehicles towed at their own expense in accordance with those regulations.

b) Bicycles

Good quality locks or chains are recommended for all bicycles. Bicycles may only be stored in designated areas within the Residences. Bicycles must not be stored in your room or anywhere else in the buildings. Bicycles found in any other areas (e.g. attached to posts, railings, trees, et cetera) will be removed and disposed of without compensation to the resident or to the owner of the bicycle (if not the resident).

Abandoned bicycles are common at residence. Periodically the residence bicycle racks/bars will be inspected, and bicycles that appear to be abandoned will be tagged for a reasonable notice period set out on the tag. If the resident does not deal with their bicycle in the manner set out on the tag or otherwise remove the tag, after the expiry of the notice period, the University will remove and dispose of such bicycles. Residents are required to check their bicycles at least every two weeks to ensure it has not been tagged for removal. The University shall not reimburse or otherwise compensate any resident nor the owner of any bicycle (if not the resident) for loss or loss of use of a bicycle deemed to be abandoned and disposed of in accordance with this section.

c) Theft or damage

The University is not responsible for theft or damage to cars, bicycles, motorcycles, mopeds, scooters, or any other vehicle, or any contents stored on or within them.

1.37 Security

You are responsible for taking reasonable precautions to ensure that your accommodation and the building in which it is located are protected from a breach of security. This includes, but is not limited to, locking your door(s) and window(s), not forcing or propping open building entrance doors, not permitting unknown persons into any residence building, and immediately reporting strangers or security concerns. You are not permitted to copy any key or keycard provided to you by Student Housing and Hospitality Services.

1.38 Protection of Privacy

Personal information in possession of Student Housing and Hospitality Services about the resident will not be released to persons outside the University administration, including family members or friends, without the written consent of the resident, unless permitted or required by law.

1.39 Pets and Guide Animals

Residents are not permitted to keep pets or animals in the accommodation or on the residence property, even temporarily. Guests may not visit the accommodation with pets or animals. If, during the term of this Contract, you or your designated roommate requires that a guide animal reside in your accommodation, even temporarily, you must follow the process described below, before the arrival of the animal at residence.

The resident or their designated roommate may keep a guide animal (as defined in the Guide Animal Act of British Columbia) in their accommodation provided the resident applies to Student Housing and Hospitality Services and provides such documentation acceptable to Student Housing and Hospitality Services to verify that:

- a) the guide animal is certified as a guide animal pursuant to the Guide Animal Act of British Columbia; and
- b) the guide animal is required by the resident or their designated roommate at the accommodation due to a documented disability.

You acknowledge that Student Housing and Hospitality Services requires at least 60 days to make those arrangements and accommodations that Student Housing and Hospitality Services deems to be reasonable and suitable for residents requiring guide animals and those other residents that may be affected by the presence of guide animals. Accordingly, you will apply to Student Housing and Hospitality Services and provide the information described above as soon as reasonably possible after learning about your or your designated roommate's requirement to reside with a guide animal. You also acknowledge that a failure to submit your application 60 days before the arrival of the guide animal at residence may result in your relocation to another accommodation or residence property, either on a temporary basis, or for the remainder of the Contract term. Any guide animal must be kept in such a manner so as not to disturb, threaten or create a nuisance to other persons or Student Housing and Hospitality Services and, without limiting the foregoing, keep the guide animal in accordance with the applicable Student Housing and Hospitality Services policies, rules and regulations.

2.0 RESIDENCE LIFE

2.01 Statement of Rights and Accompanying Responsibilities of the Individual within the Residence Community

The well-being of the residence community rests on the balance of the community's ability to meet the needs of the individual and vice versa. This balance is best achieved when everyone is aware of their rights and accompanying responsibilities to themselves, others and the community. The following guiding principles describe the rights and accompanying responsibilities of the individual within the residence community:

- Every person in the community can expect consideration and respect for their feelings and needs, and in return has the responsibility to conduct themselves in a civil manner and to show respect for the rights of every other person in the community.
- Every person in the community can expect to live in an environment where their possessions and the communal space are shown respect by every other person.

2.02 Residence Standards Overview

The University is committed to ensuring that all members of the University community are able to study and work in an environment of tolerance and mutual respect, free from harassment and discrimination. The standards and regulations stated here strive to protect the well-being, safety and security of residents and contribute to a residence community that is conducive to residents' academic success, personal growth and development. These standards are applicable on or about all residence property (which includes but is not limited to all residence buildings, parking lots, and surrounding grounds), and during all residence-related events, even if these events take place outside residence property.

Living with others in a residence is different from living in a private apartment or house. What you may feel comfortable with in private may not be safe or appropriate in a shared residential environment that has a mandate to support the University's academic mission.

2.03 Residence Standards Process

When an alleged violation of the residence standards and regulations is brought to the attention of the Residence Life Manager, he or she is responsible for ensuring that an investigation is conducted. The Residence Life Manager will then decide on the balance of probabilities, taking into account the relevant evidence (including circumstantial evidence), whether a violation has occurred, and if it has, the appropriate sanction.

If you are found in violation of a residence standard or regulation outlined in Section 3.0 of this Contract you may be warned or assigned one or more standards points. If four or more points are received or accumulated, the University may terminate this Contract, evict you from your accommodation and bar you from visiting University residences. Standards points remain on record for twelve months, or as stipulated upon eviction.

In addition to the assignment of standards points, other discretionary conditions or learning opportunities may also be required and form part of the sanction. These conditions may include restriction of privileges, required transfer to different accommodation, a behavioural contract, work assignments, service to the University, or other related assignments including, but not limited to, research and a written statement or paper, awareness programs for alcohol/drug misuse, or any other sanction deemed appropriate by the University.

In addition to a sanction, you may be required by the Residence Life Manager to participate in a professional health assessment or minimum number of counselling sessions to ensure your safety and well-being or that of other residents.

Your failure to comply with the sanctions or other measures imposed under this Section is, itself, a violation of these residence standards and regulations and may result in further action by the University pursuant to this Contract.

If the Managing Director of Student Housing and Hospitality Services, or his or her designate, is of the opinion that you pose a threat to the well-being of yourself or any other resident, or that you are limiting the ability of any other resident to study, then he or she may without notice impose immediate sanctions upon you up to and including eviction from your accommodation, a ban from all residence property, including parking lots and surrounding grounds, and termination of this Contract.

In addition to being investigated and acted upon by the Residence Life Manager, incidents may be:

- referred to the Equity and Inclusion Office, and/or
- investigated under the University's discipline procedures, and/or
- investigated under any other applicable policy of the University, and/or
- referred to the police.

Should you wish to appeal the assignment of standards points and/or the sanction imposed, you have three business days to submit a formal written appeal to your Residence Life Manager. The Appeal must be based on the following grounds:

1. The appellant can provide a compelling reason why evidence crucial to the case was not available to be introduced during the original Standards investigation
2. Some aspect of the administration of the Standards investigation prevented the appellant from presenting a fair and complete case
3. The appellant can demonstrate that some evidence was not given adequate consideration

Disagreement with the Standards decision is not a basis for appeal.

For more information about the residence standards processes and procedures view the department website at www.housing.ubc.ca, or see your Residence Life Manager.

3.0 RESIDENCE STANDARDS AND REGULATIONS

You are expected to use reasonable foresight to choose actions that do not place the safety or well-being of yourself or others at risk. These standards and regulations are an important part of your Contract. Violation, or actions that contribute to or facilitate the violation, of any of the following regulations are a breach of this Contract and may result in standards action, sanction and eviction from residence as well as other actions described in Section 2 above and in this Section 3, below. The University will not accept ignorance, anger, alcohol or substance abuse as an excuse, reason or rationale for violation. If you choose to be part of a group that is violating residence standards and regulations you may collectively and individually be held responsible for the violation.

3.01 Alcohol in Residence

Residents who choose to consume alcohol must do so responsibly in compliance with the law, and will be accountable for their actions.

- a) Drinking alcoholic beverages or carrying unsealed liquor is permitted only in the Residents' room, and at licensed residence events.
- b) Drinking alcoholic beverages or carrying unsealed liquor is not permitted in any other areas including, but not limited to, patios, courtyards, elevators, washrooms, laundry rooms, phone booths, hallways, stairwells, corridors, main floor foyers, lounges, and areas outside the residence.

- c) Participating in drinking games is not permitted. Drinking games are games which involve the consumption of alcohol and usually involve swift consumption and/or high volume consumption. Some examples are: "beerpong," "funnelling," "shotgunning" using a bier stick or otherwise, "quarters," and "floor crawls." This list is not exhaustive, and the University may stop and take action against any resident participating in any activity, whether listed above or not, which is, in the Residence Life Manager's opinion, a drinking game.
- d) Possession and/or consumption of 'common source' alcohol (e.g.: keg cans, large containers of pre-mixed alcohol, et cetera) within residence is prohibited.
- e) Brewing and distilling alcohol is not permitted in your accommodation or on any other residence property. This includes brewing beer, cider or wine and distilling spirits (i.e. any kind of hard alcohol).
- f) Residence/ committee/floor funds may not be used to subsidize or provide alcohol.

3.02 Attack on the Dignity and Security of an Individual

Activity (verbal, written, graphic, or physical) that is threatening, racist, sexist, homophobic, or any form of discrimination, harassment, sexual harassment or unwanted sexual attention is prohibited, and may result in eviction from residence. This can include, but is not limited to: threats of violence, posting or distributing material and/or behaving in a manner that is offensive and may contribute to an intimidating, hostile or uncomfortable environment; putting offensive posters/pictures in areas available to public view, including windows or common areas; using social media, text messaging, e-mail or other electronic messaging, voice mail, message boards, mail, computer networks or other media to convey obscene or otherwise objectionable messages or materials; writing graffiti anywhere on residence buildings or property or encouraging or engaging in offensive acts or behaviour; and repeatedly following or attempting to make unwanted contact with another person.

3.03 Barbecuing and Outdoor Grilling

Barbecuing and outdoor grilling is only permitted in areas authorized by the Residence Life Manager. It is not permitted inside residence buildings, on balconies, or on walkways. Where barbecuing and outdoor grilling is permitted, the grill or barbecue must be attended at all times. Barbecuing and outdoor grilling must be carried out a sufficient distance away from the building, as determined by the Residence Life Manager, to not create a nuisance, disturbance or inconvenience to other residents or other members of the University community, or cause damage to or otherwise endanger any person's property.

3.04 Beer Bottles

Beer bottles are not permitted in residence or on the surrounding residence property. This includes up to 40-ounce glass bottles of beer, growlers, malt liquor or other "beer beverage" containers.

3.05 Cablevision

In any residence, tampering with the cable, cable splitting or splicing, diverting the signal or attempting any other unauthorized access to cablevision is prohibited.

3.06 Cafeteria / Residence Dining Room / Retail Outlet Conduct

Inappropriate or disruptive behaviour in any food service or retail outlet is not permitted and may result in eviction. (See Food Services, Section 4)

3.07 Cleanliness Standards

Residents are expected to keep shared living areas and the exterior of their room/unit doors clean. Failure to do so may result in cleaning charges, and/or further action as may be deemed appropriate by Student Housing and Hospitality Services. Common area damage or unreasonable mess may result in shared assessments, the possible relocation of the residents of the floor/unit, and/or denial of future residence assignment. (See Section 1.31 Housekeeping)

3.08 Cooking

Cooking devices, other than those supplied by the University in units that have kitchens, are not permitted in residence buildings. This includes but is not limited to, hot plates and butane burners. For barbecues, see Section 3.03 Barbecuing and Outdoor Grilling.

In units with kitchens, residents must be in attendance at all times while preparing food on any cooking appliance, including but not limited to microwaves, toasters, electric grills/sandwich makers, stoves, et cetera.

In units that have a kitchen, residents must obtain the approval of the Residence Life Manager before adding any additional cooking devices.

3.09 Cooperation with Staff and Others

Residents and guests shall cooperate with requests from staff members, emergency personnel, police. Failure to cooperate with, and/or verbal or physical harassment or abuse of a staff member (residence life staff, housekeepers, Housing Office personnel, trades staff, third-party contractors, emergency and/or police personnel, et cetera) may result in standards action, eviction from residence, and/or referral to the University's disciplinary process. Misleading or not cooperating with a standards investigation may result in standards action.

3.10 Damage to Property

Damage to the personal property of other residents or damage to residence property including, but not limited to, posters and advertising materials is prohibited and may result in eviction from residence and an assessment for, without limitation, damages. See Appendix II for additional information.

3.11 Dangerous Activity

Participating in activities that are dangerous or potentially harmful to any person or property is prohibited and any participation in such activity, regardless of whether it is you, your designated roommate or your guest(s) that are actually engaging in the activity, may result in eviction. Restricted activities include any activity that, in the opinion of the Residence Life Manager, is dangerous or potentially harmful to any person or property. This includes but is not limited to: smashing objects, breaking glass, dangerous horseplay (e.g.: "dog piling," wrestling, et cetera), climbing the outside of residence buildings or structures, climbing into any building through a window, and setting fires of any size in or about the accommodation or anywhere in residence or on residence grounds, which includes setting any objects, regardless of size, on fire.

3.12 Drugs

The possession, use, trafficking (which includes manufacture, sale, giving, administering, transporting, sending, delivery, distributing) or offering to do anything related to the possession, use or trafficking of illegal drugs is prohibited. Any involvement, whether direct or indirect, in any illegal drug or drug-related activity is prohibited. Possession of paraphernalia that is associated with the possession, use or trafficking of illegal drugs (including but not limited to bongos, vaporizers, scales, grinders) is prohibited. These activities may result in eviction and referral to the police.

For greater certainty:

- marijuana, hashish and their derivatives are considered illegal drugs for the purposes of this Contract; and
- trafficking in prescription drugs is considered an illegal drug activity for the purposes of this Contract, regardless of the amounts involved, and regardless of whether or not money or any other form of consideration is exchanged. Without limitation, both selling and sharing (giving away) methylphenidate (commonly sold under the name Ritalin) is prohibited.

3.13 Elevator Tampering

Tampering with elevator safety systems or engaging in activities that may damage or interfere with the operation of the residence elevators is prohibited, and will result in an assessment for, without limitation, the cost of repairs and possible eviction from residence.

3.14 Explosive materials

Possession of explosive or flammable material including, but not limited to firecrackers, fireworks, dynamite, gasoline or other such materials is not permitted on residence property. Possession of the same may result in eviction. Propane tanks are not permitted in residence buildings.

3.15 False Identification

Using false identification for any reason, including gaining access to a licensed event when underage, or signing out a key, is prohibited, and may result in referral to the police.

3.16 Guests or Visitors

- a) Residents are responsible for their guests' behaviour whether they participated in, condoned or were aware of the guests' behaviour or not. Anyone who is invited to, accompanied on, accepted or admitted to the residence property (which includes but is not limited to all residence buildings, parking lots, and surrounding grounds) is deemed to be a guest of that resident.
- b) A resident who facilitates the access (for example, opening a locked door) of a stranger or 'unhosted' person to residence property will be deemed to be the host of that person and will be held responsible for that person's behaviour as if the person were their guest.
- c) Residents must be present as hosts of their guests at all times, however their failure to be present does not mitigate or relieve their responsibility for their guests' behaviour. Residents are responsible for their guests' actions until the guests leave the residence property.

- d) Accompanying or acting as a host to a former resident who was evicted and does not have visiting privileges, and/or a person whose visiting privileges have been revoked, is prohibited.
 - e) Residents are responsible for activities that take place in their room or unit whether they are present at the time of the activity or not. A resident's failure to lock their door does not mitigate their responsibility for the actions of others that occur in the resident's room or unit.
 - f) Residents may accommodate overnight guests in their rooms for a maximum of four nights in any given month. Residents may be evicted for guests' stays which exceed this period of time or are a disturbance to the floor, unit/apartment. No extra bedding is available and guests may not sleep in the lounge or common area. No person may be the guest of more than one resident in succession. In exceptional circumstances, extensions may be granted by the Residence Life Manager.
- ### 3.17 Illegal Entry
- You must have written permission to enter another person's unit. You must only enter residence property, your accommodation and any other place you are duly permitted to enter by using the prescribed key in the prescribed manner. Manipulating locks, doors and windows is prohibited. Unauthorized entry for any reason is prohibited, and may result in eviction and referral to the police.

3.18 Inappropriate Behaviour

In addition to the other provisions of Section 3 any conduct which is inappropriate or disruptive to the residence community or the University, as determined by the Residence Life Manager, is prohibited and may result in eviction.

Without limiting the foregoing, inappropriate behaviour includes 'mooning,' public urination, and nudity visible outside of the resident's room.

3.19 Initiations/Hazing

Initiation or hazing activities that single out particular residents and/or create mental or physical discomfort, and/or exposes another to undue embarrassment or ridicule, and/or may be physically or emotionally harmful to others are prohibited. Encouraging, initiating, participating in and/or supporting such activities is prohibited and may result in eviction.

3.20 Noise

Residence is a densely-populated, vibrant and growing community. You must expect some reasonable living noise — absolute silence is not possible. However, as is set out in this section, residents are not permitted to create excessive noise.

- In all residences, residents are expected to be considerate of their neighbours 24 hours a day, seven days a week. An individual's right to reasonable quiet study and sleep supersedes others' rights to make noise. In cases of dispute, the Residence Life staff will determine what is reasonable. If someone asks that you be quiet, respect that person's wishes and reduce your noise.

Contract

- There may be no loud playing of radios, televisions, stereo or other audio equipment or musical instruments without permission from the Residence Life Manager. Audio equipment cannot be played such that sound, and especially the bass (low frequency sound) can be heard outside of the resident's room or unit. Subwoofers are not permitted in your room, accommodation or unit.
- Musical instruments may not be practiced or played in the resident's room or unit except as authorized by the Residence Life Manager. Residents may be required to practice their musical instruments elsewhere on campus. Instruments that are stationary or not easily transported to a practice area (for example acoustic piano) are not permitted in residence.
- The use of the outdoor sports facilities such as the basketball or ball hockey rink near residences is restricted to "non-quiet" hours, and there may be special, limited hours of use during examination periods, or other times as designated by the Residence Life Manager.
- In addition to being considerate at all times, quiet hours are those times during which residents are prohibited from making noise which can be heard outside of their unit, or which may disturb the resident's roommate in any way (if applicable), or which can be heard outside the residence building and may disturb a resident inside the building. This refers primarily, but not exclusively to talking, noise from audio equipment, radios, televisions, musical instruments, computer equipment and telephones. The quiet hours are as follows:

Quiet Hours

Sunday–Thursday 10 pm to 7 am

Friday and Saturday nights 1 am to 7 am

Exam Quiet Hours

During exam periods, starting no later than the first Saturday following the last day of classes and through to the last day of exams, quiet hours are 23 hours a day, with the exception of a courtesy hour from 7–8 pm. 4.0 FOOD SERVICES

Similkameen Place, Valhalla, Kalamalka, Nicola, Cassiar or Purcell Residents—Residence Meal Plan

Students who reside in Similkameen Place, Valhalla, Kalamalka, Nicola, Cassiar or Purcell residences are required to purchase a Residence Meal Plan, referred to in this Contract as the “Residence Meal Plan.” The Residence Meal Plans as well as the costs and fees involved are described in Appendix IV.

After the purchase of a Residence Meal Plan and before the second Residence Meal Plan fee instalment is due, students may switch to a different Residence Meal Plan (see Section 4.01 for important details and 4.04 for payment instalment dates).

Each Residence Meal Plan is a declining balance meal plan, with students choosing the items they wish to consume and paying a la carte for each item. The UBC Food Services section of this Contract outlines the costs, options and the payment schedule for each Residence Meal Plan, and rules of conduct for the food service facilities.

Residents residing in Monashee Place, Cascades or Upper Cascades — Optional Dining Plan

Residents who reside in Monashee Place, Cascades or Upper Cascades residences may choose to purchase a Dining Plan which can be used in food service facilities on campus. This plan is different from a Residence Meal Plan, but does provide some costs savings to purchasers.

If you have questions regarding the Residence Meal Plan or Dining Plan, please contact the Student Housing and Hospitality Services Office (see Appendix I for contact information).

4.01 Residence Meal Plan – Terms and Conditions

All students living in Similkameen Place, Valhalla, Kalamalka, Nicola, Cassiar, or Purcell must purchase one of the mandatory Residence Meal Plans. The Residence Meal Plan options are outlined in Appendix IV. Acceptance of Similkameen Place, Valhalla, Kalamalka, Nicola, Cassiar, or Purcell residence is an automatic acceptance of a bronze level meal plan account and is acceptance of all of the terms and conditions of the Residence Meal Plan.

After the purchase of a Residence Meal Plan and before the second Residence Meal Plan fee instalment is due, students may switch to a different Residence Meal Plan. For greater certainty, the new Residence Meal Plan fees will apply (see Section 4.04 for payment instalment dates).

Each Residence Meal Plan is a declining balance meal plan, with students choosing the items they wish to consume at applicable food service facilities and paying a la carte for each item. Each Residence Meal Plan consists of an amount of Basic Meal Plan Dollars and Flex Dollars which are described below. The cost of each Residence Meal Plan is outlined in Appendix IV.

Financial Terms

Basic Meal Plan Dollars: This declining balance amount is available to make food and non-alcoholic purchases at designated food service facilities on campus.

Flex Dollars: This declining balance amount is available for purchases of items at all food service facilities on campus, and items at UBCcard campus partners off campus.

Basic Meal Plan Dollars cannot be transferred to your Flex Dollar account. This restriction ensures that the Residence Meal Plan maintains its tax exempt status.

If you run out of Basic Meal Plan Dollars but have Flex Dollars left in your account, Flex Dollars will be used to make the purchases described in the Basic Meal Plan Dollars section above. Flex Dollars will automatically be transferred to your Basic Meal Plan Dollars account to cover each purchase you make, until your Flex Dollars run out.

After your Residence Meal Plan fees are fully paid, you may purchase additional Flex Dollars as needed.

Your UBC student identification card (the “UBCcard”) is your meal card. In order to make purchases under your Residence Meal Plan, you must present your UBCcard at the point of sale.

Your Residence Meal Plan is for your personal use only; it is non-transferable and you may not transfer funds to another resident’s Residence Meal Plan. Unused balances are addressed in section 4.06 below.

4.02 Your UBCcard

UBC will issue you a UBCcard. As described above, your UBCcard is the way you make purchases under your Residence Meal Plan. You are responsible for obtaining a UBCcard prior to your first meal in residence. If you are a returning student and already have a UBCcard, your card will be automatically activated as your meal card prior to your arrival at residence.

It is your responsibility to have your UBCcard with you at all transactions. If you do not have your UBCcard, you will not be allowed to make purchases on your Residence Meal Plan.

In addition to the above, you must comply with the terms and conditions applicable to your UBCcard. In particular, note the following:

- you must immediately report a lost or stolen UBCcard to the Student Information and Services Office in the University Centre; and
- you are responsible for the security of your UBCcard and student number. Do not give out your student number. Treat your card like cash and keep it in a safe place at all times. You are responsible for all use made of this card and for any indebtedness arising from such use.

4.04 Meal Plan Selection and Payment

Meal Plan Selection

- Review Appendix IV of this Contract for a description of each Residence Meal Plan.
- You may switch to a different Residence Meal Plan at any time before the second instalment of your Residence Meal Plan fees is due.

Meal Plan Payment

- Review Appendix IV of this Contract for the Residence Meal Plan fee payment schedule.
- If you are registered in the Winter Session, the first instalment of your Residence Meal Plan fees is due upon acceptance of this Contract. The second instalment of your Residence Meal Plan fees is due by September 26, 2014.

If you are registered in the Term One or Term Two only session, the full amount of your Residence Meal Plan fees is due upon acceptance of this Contract.

- Late payments will be subject to a $25 late payment fee, in addition to any other remedies UBC may have under this Contract or in law.
- Failure to pay the fees by or on the dates stipulated in this Contract may, in the University's sole discretion, result in the denial of further meals and/or termination of this Contract and eviction from residence.
- Cheques that are returned "NSF" are subject to a bank charge of $25 and an administration charge of $30. Only certified cheques or bank drafts will be accepted after February 28, 2015.

4.05 One-Term only meal plan

Fees for students registered for Term One Session only or Term Two Session only are outlined in Appendix IV. Students with a residence assignment date other than the start date of the term will have their fees pro-rated based on the residence assignment date.

4.06 Withdrawing from a meal plan and refunds

If you cancel this Contract prior to your Move-In Date your meal plan fees will be refunded.

If you cancel this Contract on or after your Move-In Date:

- a) Any unused funds, both Basic Meal Plan Dollars and Flex Dollars, will be automatically placed in a carryover plan. This carryover plan can be used for future on-campus food purchases but is 100% non-refundable, and cannot be redeemed for cash and/or applied as payment to any other UBC Food Services accounts. Once in the carryover plan these funds do not expire.

- b) If you do not wish to have your meal plan placed in a carryover account you may request a partial refund on the terms set out below within seven (7) days of the end of your contract cancellation or expiry. Refunds are requested using the credit card refund form available online or in the Housing office. There is a $25 administration fee for refunds.

- i) Unused Basic Meal Plan Dollars are refunded at 66%. Unused Flex Dollars are refunded at 100%. All refunds are subject to a $25 administration fee.
- ii) You may request a refund of your Flex Dollars only, and allow your Basic Meal Plan Dollars to automatically be placed in a carryover plan. The Flex Dollars will be refunded at 100% minus a $25 administration fee.
- iii) Refunds are initiated once you have completed the refund form and residence check-out procedures. Refunds are credited to a credit card, although a cheque may be requested.

- c) If you are not cancelling this Contract after your Move-In Date, but wish to cancel your meal plan because you are transferring to another residence, the criteria for refunds above will be pro-rated based on the residence transfer date.

With respect to refunds please note that the 34% non-refundable portion of the meal plan covers the cost of making quality food services available for residents at convenient times.

APPENDIX II

Contract Related Terms

Physical Aggression, Violence and Self Defence

Refer to Section 3.34 Violence/Physical Aggression.

The need for self-defence is recognized. Physical self defence is acceptable only when the resident has no other means to escape another's physical aggression, and then only at a level necessary to escape. You are expected to:

- 1) Avoid (conflict) situations that escalate to the point that your physical safety is at risk.
- 2) Walk or run away. Get away from the unsafe situation, even if it means a loss of face or pride. Shout for help and then immediately seek assistance from the residence life staff.
- 3) If those strategies fail, you are expected to use only the amount of force required to create the opportunity for escape, and immediately seek assistance from the residence life staff.

Safety Equipment

Refer to Section 3.28 Safety/Security/Fire Equipment.

- Do not disturb or hang things from the fire safety sprinkler heads in your room, lounge, or corridors. If they are accidentally activated the resulting damage will be extensive and expensive for you.
- Never cover or disconnect the smoke or heat detector in your room. If it malfunctions immediately call the Housing Office and the staff will advise you what to do. If a smoke or heat detector is found disconnected or disabled (without permission), all the residents of that room or unit will be at risk of standards action, and will be assessed for reconnection or repair.

Damage to Walls

Refer to Section 3.10 Damage to Property.

- Do not use nails, screws, hooks, glue-on hangers, scotch/masking/duct tape on your walls. You will be at risk of receiving an assessment for, without limitation, the damage.
- To hang posters, please use only poster magic mounts which are available at the Housing Office (for free), or the 3M Command poster strips available at retail stores.
- To hang pictures or decorations use the removable 3M Command picture strips. These are inexpensive and widely available at grocery or hardware stores.

Assessments

Refer to 1.0 for the definition of an assessment and Section 1.23 Damages and Costs.

Upon receiving an assessment notice choose one of these two options:

1. Pay the assessment on-line by the due date, or request an extension from the Residence Life Manager before the due date. Reasonable requests will be accommodated.
2. Appeal the assessment on-line before the due date. You have to pay the assessment when you submit your appeal.

If you do not pay or appeal your assessment by the due date, it will be applied to your University account. If your account with the University is not in good standing, you will be blocked from future academic registration and residence accommodation.

Protect Your Electrical Equipment

Refer to Section 1.21 Liability.

Computers and other electronic equipment are sensitive to electrical disturbances. These disturbances can occur frequently and have the potential of disrupting or damaging your sensitive electronic equipment. You can take the following actions to reduce the risk of electrical problems:

- Limit the amount of equipment plugged into one outlet.
- Use three-pronged plugs for equipment that requires them. Never remove the grounding pin from the plug.
- Purchase a good quality "surge suppressor." This is different from a power bar.

Carry Insurance

Refer to Sections 1.21 Liability and 1.22 Insurance. Please consider the following:

- What does your insurance cover (e.g. damage or loss due to theft, water, fire, earthquake, flood)?

Appendices

- Is your coverage right for your needs (e.g. depreciated or replacement value)?
- How much insurance do you need to fully protect your belongings?
- Ask your insurance agent about terminology you don't fully understand.
